Opening Sentence

Those who fear the Lord will form true judgements, and like a light they will kindle righteous deeds. Sirach 32.16

Versicles & Responses

Peter Aston

Psalm 119: 145–152

p. 494

First Lesson

2 Corinthians 5: 6–15

So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord— for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences. We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart. For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

Office Hymn

Phos hilaron - setting: V. J. Schramm

1. O gra - cious Light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in hea - ven, O Jesus Christ, ho - ly and bless - ed! 2. Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the ves - per light, we sing thy praises, O God: Father, Son, and Ho - ly Spi - rit.
 3. Thou art worthy at all times to be praised by happy voic - es, O Son of God,
 O Giv - er of life, and to be glo - ri - fied through all the worlds.

Second Lesson

Matthew 6.19–21

'Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Collect of the Day

Eternal God, you clothed your servant Hannah with the habit of prayer and the robe of wisdom, to guide her sisters in this nation in the ways of holiness and the works of mercy and love. Deliver us, we pray, from an inordinate love of this world, that we may be freed for the worship of your Name and for deeds that reveal your grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Second and Third Collects p. 24

Anthem

Laudate pueri - Felix Mendelssohn

Laudate, pueri, Dominum; laudate nomen Domini. Sit nomen Domini benedictum ex hoc nunc et usque in saeculum. / Praise the Lord, ye servants: O praise the Name of the Lord. Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth for evermore.
